I developed the curricula for hospitality management undergraduates studying in the Egyptian Higher Institutes in response to the Minister of Higher Education's vision that entails converting such institutes to Community Colleges with a special focus on vocational subjects rather than just theory to help graduates find jobs easily and flourish in the labour market.
I developed and delivered the heritage marketing module to students, preparing a master in heritage conservation and site management, from Egypt and abroad including countries such as England, Germany, China, Jordan, Bangladesh, and Russia.
I organized the heritage conservation and site management conference held in Egypt with a wonderful team of colleagues. Each one is responsible for something and I am in charge of the conference venue. Our job, as a venue team, is to handle all accommodation and food and beverage aspects related to the conference including assigning hotel rooms, attendees' registration, organizing seating, coordinating coffee breaks, lunches, dinners, and looking after VIPs. In addition, I also present the conference programme and speakers with another colleague.
I managed the Faculty hotel with a team of 8 members.
I developed the curriculum of specialized foreign language for undergraduates enrolled on the McDonald's Egypt Reciprocal Education Programme and I taught it as well.

I reviewed the education quality within the Higher Institutes for Hospitality and Tourism located in the areas of Heliopolis and Nasr City. My role involved reviewing such institutes in terms of three visits including: (1) pre-academic year visit, (2) during academic year visit, and (3) post academic year visit. Based on the visits, I used to develop professional reports that involved all relevant details.
I developed the curriculum of specialized foreign language for undergraduates enrolled on the Americana's Egypt Reciprocal Education Programme.
I developed the training material for Spa and Wellness Hotels and Resorts Service Design, in cooperation with Tartu University in Estonia, in line with the new certification programme in Egypt and in respond to industry demand.
I developed the curricula and taught several hospitality management modules both on the undergraduate and postgraduate levels. I have prepared a course description, report, and matrices for each module. I have also supervised several MSc and PhD students.
I assessed applications in the field of Tourism and Hospitality Management as part of the US Community College Initiative Programme established by the Binational Fulbright Commission in Egypt.
